LOK SABHA

The following Bills were introduced in Lok Sabha on the 19th November, 1965:—

BILL No. 73 of 1965

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, Short title 1965.

2. Article 35A of the Constitution shall be omitted.

Omission
of article
35A.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Kashmir being an integral part of India, there should not be any discrimination between citizens of India so far as the fundamental rights to purchase, enjoy and dispose of property, settlement in the State, employment, etc., are concerned. Unreasonable restriction on these rights is a clear violation of articles 13 and 19; article 35A which gives extraordinary power to the Government of Jammu & Kashmir and thereby restricts the scope of article 13 nullifies the whole significance of guarantee of fundamental rights so far as Kashmir is concerned.

Hence the necessity to delete article 35A.

BILL No. 74 OF 1965

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) ^{Short title and commencement.} Act, 1965.
(2) It will come into force at once.
2. In the First Schedule to the Constitution, under the head-^{Amend-}ing "II. The Union Territories", against entry 5, for the words ^{ment of} "Andaman and Nicobar Islands", the words "Swaraj and Shaheed First Islands" shall be substituted, and shall be deemed always to have ^{Schedule} been substituted.¹⁰

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In the course of the debate on the Union Territories (Direct Elections to the House of the People) Bill, 1965 in the last Session of Lok Sabha, a proposal was mooted by me and some other colleagues that the Andaman and Nicobar Islands should be renamed as Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose had done after their liberation by the Azad Hind Fauj in 1944. Even the Minister of State in the Ministry of Home Affairs who was in charge of the Bill, did not resist the proposal, but only said 'that it was not relevant' to the purpose of the Bill, and could be considered separately.

This Bill seeks to give legal form and content to that proposal.

BILL NO. 75 OF 1965

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Sixteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, Short title.
1965.
2. In the Preamble to the Constitution, after the word "DEMO-CRATIC", the word "SOCIALIST" shall be inserted. Amendment of Preamble.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Government of India has accepted socialistic pattern of society as its goal and has based its industrial policy and planned development of India on socialism.

The Bill, therefore, proposes to amend the Preamble.
